

Invitations to Play

An invitation to play is an exciting or interesting arrangement of resources that entices children over to explore. Children can do what ever they like with these resources, there is no pre-planned outcome.

